OCS presents Haydn's 'The Creation' with English subtitles

The Oakville Choral Society will be performing The Creation by Joseph Haydn. During Haydn's lifetime this oratorio became the first universally accepted masterpiece with unpredictable musical speed. Within several years of its first public performance in Vienna in 1799, The Creation had been heard in all the major European cities from London to Moscow. Our performance will feature a choir of seventy voices and be accompanied by the NYCO Symphony Orchestra.

The choir was founded in 1960 and since then has continued as a group of dedicated volunteers who love music, possess a true passion for singing, and enjoy contributing culturally to the community. Since 2009, the choir has been under the direction of the accomplished Music Director David Bowser.

Our performance is at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 5 at ClearView Christian Reformed Church, 2300 Sheridan Garden Drive, Oakville (at Ford Drive). Tickets are $25 for adults purchased in advance, or $30 at the door. Student tickets are $15. Children 12 and under are admitted free.

When you purchase your tickets, simply print out the receipt and bring it with you to the concert and it will be exchanged for your tickets.
